Reader of the Week

Ben Parry Price 7T

'I read Awful Auntie by David Walliams, it was an amazing book because it always made me want to read more. The characters were all unique in their own way which I found great. I would recommend this book to everyone that loves adventures'.

WEEKLY FOCUS(Week 2)
Monday 14th November
UNIFORM & EQUIPMENT

Sponsorship - Brooke Scott 10T is raising money to help build a school in South Africa. By buying a tag from her for £1 you will be helping to provide funding for the building of a school for some the most deprived children in South Africa. Brooke is also looking for sponsorship to go to South Africa in April 2018 to help with the building of the new School. If you wish to sponsor her please contact Tasker Milward School.

Hoci Euan Dyer and George Makepeace 9T have been selected for the South Wales U14 Hockey squad and have played for the Mens' Pembroke County Hockey team again this year.

Euan has also been selected for the Welsh National Age Group, which is a squad of 40 U18 boys, selected for the Wales Squad. Euan is also going to London to play for the U16 Wales Squad. Llongyfarchiadau!

Llangrannog

27 pupils from Year 7 and 8 spent the weekend at Llangrannog Urdd Camp, accompanied by Mr. Richards, Mrs. McFarlane and Mrs. Jones. Everyone had a fantastic weekend, trying lots of new activities such as skiing, horse-riding, quad biking and high ropes. Students also had the opportunity to practise their Welsh skills, da iawn pawb!

Pêl-rwyd Congratulations to U16 Netball squad who competed in Pembrokeshire Schools County Tournament last Friday. Great effort by all team members, da iawn pawb!

Y7 Ultimate Frisbee in the Dome, Friday lunchtimes - Y7 only and they must wear trainers!
