'I read Billionaire Boy by David Walliams. I scored 100% on the book quiz. I enjoyed this book because it was really funny. My favourite character was Raj the shop keeper because he made me laugh. I recommend this book to girls and boys around my age'. Da iawn Niamh!

Gutsy performance to win a close, physical game in poor conditions. Last week the 1st XV won 10 - 5 in a very physical game against Fishguard. They all had brilliant attitude in defence, with all the boys throwing themselves into rucks and tackles. Bendigedig!

Ryobi: Vs Fishguard 1st XV won 10 - 5, Y10 Lost 20 - 10.
Pêl-rwyd: Vs Castle School Y9 Drew 10 - 10

Congratulations to Ashlea Lewis, Elin Miller, Hannah Pratt and Molly Pratt who have been invited to represent West Wales U14 in a netball national tournament in Bangor Uni in January. Llonyfarchiadau!

Y13 beat Y12 Friday's football match to raise money for BBC Children in Need @BBCCIN by charging an entry fee and selling drinks and sweets! Da iawn!

Year 6 Technology Day On Tuesday we had around 200 Year 6 pupils from our feeder primary schools testing out their technological skills with the bridge building challenge. There was a great element of competition between the pupils (and teachers!) with the winning bridge holding 7 bricks. A big thanks to Mr Fullick for all his work in arranging all the materials for the day - diolch!
