Beth sy'n digwydd yr wythnos hon? Beth fydd yn digwydd nesaf?

Message from Mrs Lewis Well done to Year 10 for their work ethic and excellent attitudes in their Pre-Public Examinations this week. We are really pleased with the progress you have made in your GCSE courses! Year 7 enjoyed a day of "Crime of your Life" this week with many outside providers including the police, fire service and magistrates. There were many positive comments from our visitors on the STAR Culture they saw in action. Da iawn pawb!

'Pupils of the Week'

- ◆ Devon Badham 7A for excellent progress in English
- ◆ Benjamin Streeter 8A Consistently impressive effort and attitude in maths

Our first Language Club took place this week. Pupils from Year 7 & 8 sampled French food, played French games and took part in a French culture quiz. The winning team was 'The Dream Team'; Kian Walton 7T, Yasmin Haigh 7E, and JoJo Hipperson 7A. Next week's theme is SPANISH in T13, Wednesday lunchtime.

There's No Business Like Showbusiness A number of pupils in Taskers are trading the boards this week at the Torch Theatre in a production of 'Annie Get Your Gun'. Ben Asson 11A, Josie Phillips 11S and Alex Luke 12A are in the chorus and Hannah Moulder 13A is playing the violin in the orchestra. It has been encouraging to see our pupils actively involved in outside organisations such as Milford Haven Operatic Society. They have all shown commitment leading up to the production, regularly attending rehearsals and increasingly becoming more confident as the weeks have progressed. Mr Sayers, Learning Support, must also be congratulated for his work as stage and Production Manager, as well as his designing of the very effective set. We wish them all the very best with the rest of the week's performances. Break a leg!!!

'Reader of the Week'

Imogen Bunney 7E I read 'Holiday Heartbreak' by R. Russell. I really enjoyed it, my favourite part was when Nikki got the text from Brandon at the last minute to say he couldn't go, but really he hadn't sent the text because he had lost his phone before the dance. I scored 100% in the book quiz.
