

Centres must ensure that both invigilators and those acting as a scribe are appropriately trained and familiar with the rules as detailed on page 52.

It is essential that the candidate is made aware of what a scribe can and cannot do in advance of their first examination, e.g. internal school tests or mock exams.